The Commission upon its own initiative or the City Manager or City Attorney may, in like manner, make, sign and file such complaint. Any employer whose employees, or some of them, hinder or threaten to hinder compliance with the provisions of this article, shall file with the Commission a verified complaint, asking for assistance by conciliation or other remedial action and, during such period of conciliation or other remedial action, no hearings, orders or other actions shall be taken, held or made by the Commission against such employer. Any complaint filed pursuant to this article must be filed within ninety days after the alleged act of discrimination.

After the filing of any complaint, or whenever there is reason to believe that an unlawful discriminatory practice has been committed, the Commission shall make a prompt investigation in connection therewith.

If it is determined after such investigation that no probable cause exists for substantiating the allegations of the complaint, the Commission shall, within ten days from such determination, cause to be issued and served upon the complainant written notice of such determination, and the complainant or his attorney may, within ten days after such service, file with the Commission a written request for a meeting with the Commission to show probable cause for substantiating the allegations of the complaint. financial institution or lender, named in such complaint, hereinafter referred to as respondent, to answer the charges of such complaint at a hearing before the Commission in Marion County at a time and place to be specified in such notice; provided, however, that such written notice is served at least thirty days prior to the time set for the hearing.

The case in support of the complaint shall be presented before the Commission by one of its attorneys or agents, but this shall not be interpreted to prohibit counsel for the complainant from participating in the presentation in the case. The respondent may file a written, verified answer to the complaint and appear at such hearing in person or otherwise, with or without counsel, and submit testimony and evidence. Except as provided in the immediately preceding provision, all of the pertinent provisions of West Virginia Code 29A-5, shall apply to and govern the hearing and the administrative procedures in connection with and following such hearing with like effect as if such provisions were set forth in extenso in this section. Provided, however, that with respect to judicial review, venue shall lie in the Circuit Court of Marion County.

If, after such hearing and consideration of all of the testimony, evidence and record in the case, the Commission shall find that a respondent has engaged in or is engaging in any unlawful discriminatory practice as defined in this article, the Commission shall issue and cause to be served on such respondent an order to cease and desist from such unlawful discriminatory practice and to take such affirmative action, including, but not limited to, hiring, reinstatement or upgrading of employees, with or without back pay, admission or restoration to membership in any respondent labor organization, or the admission to full and equal enjoyment of the services, goods, facilities or accommodations offered by any respondent place of public accommodations, and the sale, purchase, lease, rental or financial assistance to any complainant otherwise qualified for the housing accommodation or real property, denied in violation of this article, and any other order within the power of the Commission, as in the judgment of the Commission, will effectuate the purposes of this article, and including a requirement for report of the manner of compliance. Such order shall be accompanied by findings of fact and conclusions of law as specified in West Virginia Code 29A-5-3.

If, after such hearing and consideration of all of the testimony, evidence and record in the case, the Commission finds that a respondent has not engaged in such unlawful discriminatory practice, the Commission shall state its findings of fact and conclusions of law as aforesaid and shall issue and cause to be served on the complainant an order dismissing the complaint as to such respondent.

A copy of its order shall be delivered in all cases by the Commission to the complainant, the respondent, and such other public officers as the Commission may deem proper. Any such order shall not be enforceable except as provided in Section 175.11.

Any order of the Commission under this section shall have the legal effect of a judgment as defined in West Virginia Code 2-2-10(I)

175.11 ENFORCEMENT OF ORDER.

In the event any person fails to obey a lawful order, the Human Rights Commission may seek an order of the Circuit Court for its enforcement, in a proceeding as provided in this section. Such proceeding shall be brought in the Circuit Court of Marion County. Such proceeding shall be initiated by the filing of a petition in such Court, together with a written transcript of the entire record upon the hearing before the Commission. Notice of the filing of such petition, together with a copy thereof, shall be served upon respondent in the manner provided by law for the service of summons in civil actions. No hearing shall be held upon such petition within twenty days of the date of service thereof on the respondent.

The Court may grant such temporary relief or restraining order as it deems just and proper and shall make and enter upon the pleadings, testimony and proceedings set forth in such transcript an order enforcing, modifying and enforcing as so modified, or setting aside in whole or in part the order of the Commission. All such proceedings shall be heard and determined by the Court. The jurisdiction of the Circuit Court shall be exclusive and its judgment and order shall be final subject to review by the Supreme Court of Appeals.

175.12 EXCLUSIVENESS OF REMEDY.

The procedure herein provided shall, when invoked, be exclusive and the final determination therein shall exclude any other action, civil or criminal, based on the same grievance of the complainant concerned. If such complainant institutes any action based on such grievance without resorting to the procedure provided in this article, he may not subsequently resort to the procedure herein.

175.13 INJUNCTIONS IN CERTAIN HOUSING COMPLAINTS.

When it appears that a housing unit or units described in a complaint may be sold, rented or otherwise disposed of before a determination of the complaint or case has been made by the Human Rights Commission or during judicial review of any final order of the Commission, the Circuit Court of Marion County may, upon the joint petition of the Commission and the complainant, or if there is more than one complainant, all such complainants, issue a prohibitive injunction restraining the sale, rental or other disposition of such housing unit or units except in compliance with the order of the court. No such injunction shall be issued by the Court until the complainant or complainants shall have posted bond, with good security therefor, in such penalty as the Court or judge awarding it may direct. The Court may include in any such injunction granted such other conditions as it deems proper and just. Such injunction, if granted, shall be of no more than thirty days' duration. If at the end of such thirty-day period the Commission notifies the Court that additional time is needed for the disposal or determination of the complaint or case or the conclusion of such judicial review, the Court, for good cause shown, may extend the period of the injunction for such additional time as the Court deems proper. No such extension shall be granted except upon the continuation or reposting of the bond required for the original injunction and any such extension of the injunction may be granted upon such additional terms and conditions as to the Court seem proper and just.
